Alien's Bride: Lisette: (Alien's Bride) Yamila Abraham

Timid enslaved scientist Lisette is drawn to her austere master Prax-Denay, but he's from an alien subrace considered too loathsome to breed with humans. She's instead pressured to marry his superior, the cruel aristocrat Jorenkis.

The Dak-Hiliah conquered Earth to acquire the single resource they lacked: women to breed with. Lisette, one of the few brilliant scientists left in Earth's war-ravaged population, is plucked from the slave colony to help the scientist Prax-Denay. Since Lisette's gifted and obedient her overseer promises she won't be forced to marry against her will.

But what if she wants to marry?

Both she and her temperamental master are under the thumb of Jorenkis, an overindulged aristocrat who claims rights to Lisette long before she arrives on his planet. If Lisette were less introverted she'd stand a better chance at deflecting his advances. Her scientist mentor Prax-Denay looked to be even crueler than Jorenkis, but Lisette's shy demeanor and impressive skill lights a spark in his eyes that's reflected in her own.

Something more than mere professionalism prevents Prax-Denay from pursuing her. Lisette is forced to learn how tyrannical her masters truly are, and how dire her situation has become.

An erotic riveting novella by the author of Alien's Bride!
