Falling Free (Vorkosigan Saga Book 1) Lois McMaster Bujold

When engineer Leo Graf arrives at a free fall station circling a mining planet to teach welding, he's in for his first shock: the genetically engineered inhabitants have an extra set of arms in place of legs. A second shock comes when the company that owns these four-armed "quaddies" decides to abandon them, and Leo must use all his ingenuity to respond to this new crisis. Winner of the Nebula Award for Best Novel, and a Hugo finalist.

"Bujold is one of the best writers of SF adventures to come along in years."

- Locus

on Lois McMaster Bujold:

Bujold's "work remains among the most enjoyable and rewarding in contemporary SF."

- Publishers Weekly

"Bujold is also head and shoulders above the ruck of current fantasists as well as science-fictionists."

- Booklist

author bio:

Lois McMaster Bujold was born in 1949, the daughter of an engineering professor at Ohio State University, from whom she picked up her early interest in science fiction. She now lives in Minneapolis, and has two grown children. She began writing with the aim of professional publication in 1982. She wrote three novels in three years; in October of 1985, all three sold to Baen Books, launching her career. Bujold went on to write many other books for Baen, mostly featuring her popular character Miles Naismith Vorkosigan, his family, friends, and enemies. Her books have been translated into twenty-one languages. Her fantasy from Eos includes the award-winning Chalion series and the Sharing Knife series.
