Barón Biza: El inmoralista. Edición definitiva (Spanish Edition) Christian Ferrer

«Fue muchas cosas: escritor, playboy, millonario, izquierdista, pornógrafo, exiliado, empresario, financista de revoluciones, político, concesionario municipal, habitué de prisiones, editor de periódicos, huelguista de hambre, suicida, enamorado e infame.»

Lejos de decantar, el oscuro atractivo de Barón Biza aumenta con los años: circula su obra, antes denostada, y los artistas parodian su dandismo. Figura paradójica, construyó el monumento más alto del país y dilapidó una fortuna heredada mientras desafiaba a la opinión pública de su época con textos escandalosos. Misógino y machista, Barón Biza fue eclipsado por sus dos mujeres: la actriz de cine y aviadora Myriam Stefford -muerta en un accidente aéreo-, y la dirigente feminista de la UCR Clotilde Sabattini, a quien desfiguró con ácido.

Christian Ferrer, uno de los primeros en rastrear y discutir su leyenda, compone una biografía única y compleja donde resaltan el pasmo y las extravagancias tanto del hombre maldito como de su país, la Argentina.

«Libro inclasificable y perfecto.»

Sylvia Saítta, Suplemento Cultural La Nación
