YOUNG WOMEN

Three young women find themselves in difficult circumstances which require all their talents, experience and decision-making abilities to extricate themselves, while still managing to find romance along the way to resolving their problems. . Angelique volunteers at a camp for handicapped kids, and daringly rescues all of them from a forest fire. Beth returns home to her father's ranch, only to find herself trying to find a way to escape being a hostage of horse thieves. Maria invades a man's territory, professionally, and is scorned, until she arrives at the topmost position in the organization.

Allan Cannon, a writer who is an astute observer of the human condition, and an editor and publisher with a background in police work, business management and college teaching, produces stories based on real life experiences.
