Oliver Cromwell: The Story of His Life and Work, Vol. 22 (Classic Reprint) Theodore Roosevelt
Cromwell, our chief of men, who through a cloud Not of war only, but detractions rude. Guided by faith, and matchless fortitude, To peace and truth, thy glorious way hast ploughed. And on the neck of crowned fortune proud Hast reared God strophies, and his work pursued. While Darwen stream, with blood of Scots imbrued, And Dunbar field, resounds thy praises loud. And Worcester slaureate wreath. Yet much remains To conquer still; Peace hath her victories No less renowned than War: new foes arise, Threatening to bind our souls with secular chains. Help us to save free conscience from the paw Of hireH ng wolves, whose gospel is their maw. Milton. ExB cuT ivs Chamber, A lbany, June,
