The million-dollar question: Did You Hear My Cry O'Lord? What can we do as parents, role models, and leaders in our community to help assist our children in life transitions? This book addresses so many issues and concerns for our youth today in our homes, schools, and communities. It truly takes a village to raise a child. Too often we misunderstand our children and lack the ability to help them identify and cope with critical changes in their life, yet each change bring with it new fears and further confusion. To bring a fresh start requires more than just setting goals. It requires a basic understanding and knowledge of their personality, which gives insight to step by step transitions for them to live a productive and vibrant life.
