Zadie had always wanted to be kissed by the dragons who ran Seattle. She had seen them soaring the night's sky and heard them talked about in hushed whispers, but meeting them was to prove to be the life changer she probably needed.

Searching for a mate while trying to keep the vengeful wolves in line Faelon and Jetson stumble upon Zadie when they least expect it. They knew the woman with the dazzling green eyes was different, and possibly exactly what they were searching for. But they had one big problem...Gabriel.

Having waited close to a decade to bring on the dragon's deaths, Gabriel finally sees her as his opportunity to finish them off.

Will their desire for a mate distract them long enough for Gabriel to strike?
