I've been kidnapped by mechanical soldiers, learned of a plot to enslave every human on earth, and been locked up with an alien with big muscles and two tongues. That should keep me busy for a while.

For her entire life, Kira Calder has been looking up at the night sky and asking herself one question. What's out there? Well now she knows.

After following a fallen star into the woods, Kira finds herself the prisoner of a dozen mechanical soldiers. She's thrown into a freezing cold holding cell and her captors interrogate her with strange questions.

Kira begins to suspect the impossible: that Humanity is not alone in the universe. Her suspicions are confirmed when she meets a man with deep purple skin and glowing blue eyes.

"Sam" is a lean and muscular being from another world, and the only friend that Kira has in the entire galaxy. As they hurtle through the stars, their bond grows closer and curiosity begins to get the best of them.

But their budding romance is in mortal danger, as is the entire Human race. And Kira is the only person who can turn things around.

This is part one of Kira's journey - a quest that will take her from one end of the galaxy to the other as she searches for freedom, purpose, and the best sex in the universe.

All books in this series contain graphic and explicit sexuality, adult language, and mild violence. Mature readers only.
