The One God, the Father, One Man Messiah Translation: New Testament with Commentary Anthony Buzzard

Most churchgoers are unaware that what they receive in church as Bible has been filtered to them through a lens of Greek philosophical thinking. This tradition adversely affects current Christian teaching, obscuring central aspects of the original belief of Jesus and the Apostles. Post-biblical councils did much to draw a veil over the faith once delivered. Honest inquirers for the saving truth of Scripture will find this translation of the New Testament eye-opening. Most translations tend to read into the biblical text much that was never intended by the New Testament writers.
