UCLA: The First Century Marina Dundjerski

An illustrated hardcover volume offering a chronological account of UCLA's journey from its origins to the present day, as well as a thematic approach in detailing UCLA's campus development, its remarkable sporting prowess and its unique Bruin traditions.

The University of California Board of Regents, Office of the President and UCLA Chancellor's Office have provided unprecedented access to university records for this historical account. More than 200 faculty members, administrators, alumni and friends have also shared their UCLA experiences via one-on-one interviews.
