The Wild Haired Boy (The Dead End Boys) Jared B Reeves

The kids of the quiet cove stumble onto an adventure they'll never forget. Relationships are forged and broken in this journey that brings forth an evil that hasn't been seen in decades. However, where evil may exist, there may also be a bright light to encompass it. It's the steps they take, the courageous and despicable acts committed and the perseverance to continue through such a daunting task that will define or break these young adults as they find themselves in a situation where they must struggle to stay alive. If you're interested in reading anything that strains the human spirit or puts people in situations that are hard to cope with then this story may please you.
