Find the Gold, Catch the Killer, Stay Alive.

Disgraced SAS soldier Jack Starling is on a quest to avenge the death of his brother – a government agent at the heart of the British Establishment. With his own life on the line, Jack becomes embroiled in the quest for a two-hundred year old hidden treasure, battling to survive in a race against deadly foes. As the frantic struggle for revenge and power spills from London to France, Jack and his friends uncover the real secrets behind some of Europe's best-known historical landmarks. Will Jack be able to solve the mystery and uncover the secret of Napoleon's Gold, or will he face torture and death at the hands of the Continent's most ruthless villain?

This exhilarating debut novel is a lightening-paced, intelligent thriller that will not disappoint!
