Recall to Inferno (Devil's Guard II) George R. Elford

Radio Hanoi called them the commandos of death. The French Foreign Legion first recruited fugitive veterans of the German S.S. to fight in the bloodstained jungles of Asia. Then came the defeat at Dien Bien Phu and the Legion's forts became graveyards. The dreaded S.S. battalion was disbanded. But not all of them went home. Three hundred hand-picked commandos became a secret fighting force. Code-named Task Force-G, they were mercenaries without a master, unshackled to fight any way they wanted. And they wanted to fight hard, dirty, and without mercy. This is their untold story--a tale of men with ferocious bloodlust, superhuman courage, and a streak of insanity that made them the most feared killers, and heroes, of Vietnam's long and deadly war.
