Love Conquers All (Vampire Love Story Book 8) H.T. Night
Book 8 and the grand finale in the Vampire Love Story series

Fighting is what Josiah Reign does best, especially when Tommy the werewolf is his right-hand man. Josiah will fight for true love, for his ideals, and for the survival of his people. But sometimes, fighting is futile...

After Josiah goes against the will of the Triat to save his son, Jason, from Brock, the megalomaniac leader of the Mani, he learns there will be dire consequences for his noble actions.

And, as Josiah discovers the startling truth of his own existence, a terrifying destiny is set in motion, one that he doesn't know how to stop with a fist, a blade, or even with his brave heart.

As Brock gathers a massive army for an all-out war, Josiah scrambles for supporters, resources, and answers. When a battle royal ensues, Josiah knows there's only one way to save them all. It's the most unconventional tactical idea, ever. It's also the only way to save all whom he loves and holds dear.

More than just the legacy of his sons is at stake. In a world where Josiah Reign must keep his friends close, and perhaps, keep his enemies closer, can love really conquer all of the evil in the world—before it's too late for every paranormal species on earth?
