The University of Montana, Missoula: A Pictorial History Stan Cohen, Donald C. Miller

The University of Montana A Pictorial History by Stan Cohen and Don Miller Since the publication of the first pictorial history in 1980, a profound change has occurred at the university, in the city of Missoula and the nation as a whole. The university has grown with close to 14,000 students now enrolled at the Missoula campus. Dozens of new construction projects dot the east side of Missoula, and, most importantly, smaller colleges in Dillon, Butte, Helena and Missoula are all now governed by UM and are part of the University system.
