The total gifts of New York chapters, as reported by the state regent, are as follows: Garments and bedding, 25,750 articles; books, 11,951 volumes; newspaper cuttings for hospital use, 622 envelopes; in all, 38,331 pieces; cash, $9,199.40. In addition to this, many large consignments of delicacies and hospital supplies were sent, but not enumerated. NORTH DAKOTA. William Mason Chapter, of Fargo, is as yet the only organized chapter in the state. The members worked with the local branch of the American National Red Cross during the war. This organization sent one nurse to Manila, and paid the expenses of her outfit and her salary. The state regent. Mrs. Frances C. Holler, raised sufficient money for the purchase of material for pajamas, shirts, and other hospital supplies, and enlisted the ladies of Bismarck to sew the garments. Just as work was well underway a destructive fire occurred in Bismarck, destroying the best business houses in the city, and among them the building containing all work prepared by the ladies of the. 1). A. K. The loss at that time was irreparable, and for some time no further war work could be done. OHIO. Immediately after the declaration of war between Spain and the United States, the state regent of Ohio, Mrs. Estes G. Rathbone, issued a circular letter to every chapter in her state, requesting them all not to disband as usual for the summer, but to be ready for an emergency call. This suggestion was very generally followed, and the ready response of the Ohio "Daughters" to all calls upon them was largely due to this foresight of the state regent. Many of the members decided to join forces with the older organization known as...
