Chloe wants to believe in fairy tales....

The does in the herd have shunned The Mate, thinking of it as little more than an arranged marriage. But Chloe thinks the idea of being fated to someone forever is romantic. So excited about The Mate, Chloe can't wait until the night of the ceremony, and heads out in the forest in search of her mate.

Cane's tired of running....

Everything in his life has ended badly, and there was only one place left that felt like the right place to go: his family's cabin outside of Colorado Springs. Cane had been dreaming of the forest, and something much more primal that was begging to be let out.

When Cane aims his rifle at a doe in the forest, he has no idea she's exactly what he's been looking for.

A standalone story. Mature content.
