The Souls of Black Folk W.E.B. DuBois

Great progress towards the world DuBois envisioned has been made since his publication of Souls. Yet, issues taken up by Souls remain relevant, certainly as historical markers, informal, non-statistical measures of where African-Americans and the nation were then compared to their existence now. Souls is an American Classic and belongs in every public library. This audio book, like the printed version, should find its way as a classic in all libraries. Read by Allen Gilmore. Unabridged.
