Donald Trump: A Culture Of Conflict Kevin Hess

"Amazing read! How is Trump beating the Republicans? Why he'll win the White House. This book is all about Trump in linguistic combat. This book reads like a machine gun!" - Matthew Schweigert, co-owner Schweigert Family Farms

From his contentious announcement speech to his shellacking of Jeb Bush, from his spats with Megyn Kelly and Jorge Ramos to his shocking testimony of endemic corruption in the system, Donald Trump has broken nearly every rule there is to break in his presidential campaign.

But despite repeated calls for his resignation, he's not going anywhere. And with the Republican primary looming just over the horizon, the stakes are higher now than they've ever been for the New York tycoon.

Focusing on the first 100 days of Trump's campaign, Donald Trump: A Culture Of Conflict will explore how the controversial billionaire climbed to the top of the polls based on his superior handling of the media and his mastery of interpersonal conflict.

Because love him or hate him, if there's one thing that America can't get enough of, it's a winner.
