Sandrino loves Amy. Paul loves Sandrino. It's a tale as old as time - heartbreak old as rhyme.

Ever since she saved him from playground bullies, Sandrino has believed that Amy can do anything—including go to medical school. Over the years, Paul has become more involved with the church, and consequently, more tortured by his fevered dreams of a naked and kneeling Sandrino. The gang is fresh out of college and on their way to exciting new graduate schools—all in different cities.

Will Sandrino and Amy finally make good on the lust of over a decade? Will Paul finally speak his mind? Can there be a happy ending for this trio, or are they all doomed to a silent adulthood?
