"VALLEY OF THE DEATH DOLLS" is a super-freaky, super-groovy, blood-splattered, trashy, soap opera epic that's destined to become an underground camp classic (of some sort). It's a dark comedic novel, a scathing satire of "Valley of the Dolls" and "Helter Skelter", both rolled into one decadent, dirty, mind-bending novel with lots of sex, drugs, disco, mayhem and murder. Beautiful and emotionally pampered Tuesday Woodward runs away from her hometown of Destiny and goes to Hollywood to become a movie star in the hazy disco days of 1978. Instead, she goes on an bizarre odyssey filled with characters who represent the seedy side of Tinseltown. Later, she becomes friends with a sexy blond stripper named Claudia West, who skyrockets to fame overnight as a disco star with the help of music producer Dez Dupree. Jealous over Claudia's new-found super-stardom, Tuesday decides to "find herself" and join a cult led by Henry Sparrow, a wannabe rock singer and environmentalist guru who thinks he's from another planet. When Henry's followers try to get him a record deal and are shunned by Dez Dupree, they decide to even the score, resulting in an LSD-fueled night of witchy, evil violence.
