The first time I heard what I thought was something small in my attic, I thought I must be losing it. Then it happened again, again and again. I realized that there was in fact something in the attic-squirrels or rats to be precise. I knew I had to get them out of there, and fast.

After getting an outrageously priced quote from an exterminator, I decided I had to try to do it myself. Thankfully, I was successful.

This brief text tells what did not work for me, and what did.
