Messiah and the Sign of Yonah: The Ignored Stipulation in the Carpenter's Claim to be Messiah Mr. Christopher Jones

The Prophet Yonah, of all the Biblical characters, seems an unlikely candidate for Yahshua (Jesus) to invoke as being the precedent for His ministry. Just as unexpected, the typological implications of Yonah challenge the status quo of Gospel chronology. From the duration of His ministry to the day of His crucifixion, viewing the Gospels through the lens of Yonah gives new perspective to the chronological record. Yahshua offered a single miraculous sign in authenticating His Messianic claim: the Sign of Yonah. It's most notable aspect specifies that just as Yonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so Yahshua would be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. It's a stipulation too long ignored; for either Good Friday - Easter Sunday is in error, or the carpenter from Nazareth isn't who He claimed to be! Yet more than this, Yonah serves as the blueprint for Yahshua's entire ministry. From calming the storm upon the Sea of Galil, to offering salvation to the Gentiles; from being rejected by His own countrymen, to being lifted up in the course of dying. It's all predicated upon the Galilean prophet-of-old. This is a serious study into the depths of Scripture which equips believers to emerge from the abyss of religious orthodoxy onto the sacred shores of YHVH's Word.
