The Sinner's Prayer Gospel: Am I Really Born Again? Dr. Daniel Morano

The premise of this book is to address the error and danger associated with the all-pervasive embracing of a non-scriptural and casually committed to version of the gospel. A modern phenomenon, that is deceiving people into believing that they have received and are assured of an eternally secure salvation without the true surrender, commitment and passion required by Christ and the original leaders of the Church, according to scripture. This has in fact, metamorphosed into another gospel completely, a false gospel. The controversial and consequential issues of the sinner's prayer, born again and centrality of personal relationship with the Holy Spirit are dealt with extensively.

The message of the book is that we must honestly examine and make sure that the modern gospel that is being offered wholesale and indiscriminately to all with less and less scrutiny and cost to the recipient is the truth and really procures salvation. This is so crucial, as we enter into the era of the "great delusion" that scripture warns us about which will appear in the very last days. The deception is said to be so strong, that if it were possible, even God's elect would be deceived! The author brings a fresh analysis of the true relationship and commitment that Christ offers and demands of those whom He calls. Inviting the reader into a vibrant, personally rewarding and powerful relationship with the Living Christ through the Person of the Holy Spirit.

This message is life and death to a generation that is so scripturally ignorant and lacks the experience and foundation of traditional, biblical faith while being equally bombarded with so many erroneous and dangerous teachings, cleverly cloaked in mixtures of secular, esoteric and dangerous doctrines of demons passing for contemporary spirituality and all embracing, unprejudiced Christian faith.

The message of this book is essential for all professing bible believing Christians to honestly examine whether they are truly, surrendered to and following the Christ of the scriptures or if they have acquiesced in their practice to one of their own creation. It is also crucial, for Church leaders to honestly survey the gospel they are offering to their congregations and make sure that it is really what Christ and the original Church (ecclesia-gathering together of the called out ones) preached, taught and practiced. The message is also refreshing and enlightening to the vast majority of post-modern society, who has rejected or not taken seriously, the gospel message because they have rightly recognized many of these errors and compromises on the part of the Church and its leadership.
