The Voyage of the Kresala (The Seven Songs Book 4) C J Moore

Prince Gentil, in flight from the destruction of his father's royal palace, finds a berth as crew on the yacht Kresala, along with his friend Alick. Drama and adventure await them as they set sail for the Winter Isles far off across the Northern Ocean.

But the skipper Nestor, and his mate, Gorka, are themselves refugees from a troubled past, and this is no ordinary voyage. To add to the mystery, they are embarking on a secret mission involving a hidden passenger on the boat whom Nestor calls his "cargo".

Gentil and Alick have much to learn as they sail through storm and becalming, and face dangers not only from the elements but from wreckers and smugglers. Soon, too, the enchanting figure of Itxaso enters Gentil's life and together they must confront the terrifying threats that lie at the end of the Kresala's mission.

The Voyage of the Kresala is the fourth book in the series The Seven Songs. Previous titles available on Amazon Kindle are King Abba, and Behind the Mountain. See the dedicated website www.kingabba.com for more details.

C J Moore has worked as a journalist, teacher and editor in many different countries, and now spends his time between Scotland, Switzerland and Spain. The Seven Songs is his main writing project with more titles to follow as the series develops.
