Were you at a British secondary school in 1970? Did you love progressive rock? If so, you will wallow in nostalgia as you are led through the year the sixties ended and seventies culture began to emerge. In this, his debut novel, J R P Fisher captures the authentic voice of his teenage self facing 'O' levels, the battle of wits with teachers and classmates, and the daily struggle to get up for a paper round. You will be reminded of the music and events of the year, and will enjoy the wide range of schoolboy pranks.
